

Babylon Will Fall

by Jeremy James

“Many a mickle makes a muckle”

At one time this was a well-known expression in Scotland and Northern England. It means many little amounts will accumulate to make a large amount. Originally mickle and muckle both meant “large,” so the expression actually began life as “Many a little makes a muckle” as cited, for example, in Poor Richard’s Almanac, 1758. It took its current form however when, in 1793, George Washington wrote as follows to the manager of his estate at Mount Vernon about the need to keep track of expenses:

“People are often ruined before they are aware of the danger, by buying every thing they think they want; conceiving them to be trifles – without adverting to a Scotch addage – than which nothing in nature is more true – ‘that many mickles make a muckle.’”

An articulate and intelligent man, he had inadvertently fused the words ‘little’ and ‘muckle’ and made a new word, ‘mickle’.

He was trying to show how a lack of discipline in small things can lead imperceptibly to a crisis which could ruin our plans. Perhaps he was so absorbed in the principle behind his words that he failed to notice his error.

Satan's termites

The Enemy has been using this principle for a very long time. He knows that Western civilization – which was once called Christendom – will resist any open attempt to damage or break down the fabric that holds it together. So Satan has used his earthly termites to eat away at it from the inside. This is the system we know as Fabian socialism, where laws and regulations are very gradually introduced, along with a range of social changes, which slowly erode the values and norms which sustain and nourish our society.

Members of the termite class gradually promote each other into positions of influence until all the institutions that regulate our society are under their control. Especially important in this process of silent attrition are the government, the media and the banking system. Very few see how this happens and the voices of the few who do are seldom heard, mainly because the media never offers a platform to anyone who might expose their hidden agenda.

Household timber ravaged by termites

Women's soccer

Let's take a simple example. Women's soccer (football) is being heavily promoted in the media and receives substantial sponsorship and television coverage. This is a new phenomenon, designed to undermine traditional gender roles and belittle masculinity. What the public is never told, however, is that soccer is harmful to female cranial integrity, where repeated knocks from "heading the ball" is certain to inflict injury over time. The female skull is slighter than the male and more susceptible to damage from cranial blows.

The aim, clearly, is to popularise soccer among young girls and make it part of the school athletic curriculum. If that happens, an entire generation of young girls will be at risk of brain damage. Meanwhile the 'stars' of international women's soccer will earn big salaries without incurring the same risk. Why? Because many of them are secretly transgender. They were male at birth and have more robust skulls. Consider the following 'women' stars, just a few from amongst hundreds of possible examples –

Cultural Marxism

The organized assault on traditional Christian values is known as Cultural Marxism. International sport is an important element in this program of subversion. The Christ-hating termites are chewing through everything we consider normal and natural, all with a view to producing a nation of dumbed-down entertainment junkies who will believe anything they are told by the ‘experts’ or those in authority.

This program, which has been running for several decades, has been highly successful. The lives of most people today revolve around screens whose content is centrally controlled and whose impact is continually monitored. This combination of uncritical receptivity and passive dependency is so pervasive that it is now possible to conduct an occult ritual before a worldwide audience comprising billions of viewers and subtly influence their minds. Hardly one in a thousand will guess that something unnatural is happening.

We were given a king-size (or perhaps queen-size) example of this at the televised funeral of the Queen of England on 19th September. Anyone who missed the live broadcast very likely saw a clip on the evening news showing of the Masonic “breaking of the wand” ceremony. In this bizarre ritual the Lord Chamberlain (the most senior officer in the royal household) snapped in two the so-called wand of office which is meant to represent the power which the Queen exercised during her reign.

Every monarch has such a “wand”, which is believed by occultists to possess a supernatural potency. This is the first time the public was allowed to witness the “breaking of the wand” ritual – a clear sign that the Babylonian Elite are tired of hiding their true supernatural affiliation and no longer fear the power of Christian prayer.

They now exercise such control over the visible church that they can safely engage in this outrageous behavior without running the risk that a large number of true believers might come together and pray fervently to God to rebuke their wickedness. They know that the demons which serve them would be forced to withdraw if a large body of genuine Christians interceded with God in this manner. The fact that they are now engaging in “wand” rituals in public at the highest level is proof that they are getting ready to turn against the remnant of Christians who are left and eliminate them.

The Queen's coffin is draped with a Red Dragon, symbol of Satan:
"And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads."
- Revelation 12:3

The ritual itself, and the way it was broadcast, is a sign that the Babylonian Elite are about to embark on an entirely new phase of their campaign against humanity. They seem to be signalling a transition between the old world order and the Masonic-Cabalistic perversion which they intend to impose on all nations.

Note the wand!

"The Caduceus then – the original meaning of which word is a herald's staff – as the attribute of a life-restoring God [Hermes], is in its primary meaning the symbol of immortality; so in Freemasonry the rod of the Senior Deacon, or the Master of Ceremonies, is but an analogue of the Hermean Caduceus. This officer, as leading the aspirant through the forms of initiation into his new birth or Masonic regeneration, and teaching him in the solemn ceremonies of the Third Degree the lesson of eternal life, may well use the magic wand as a representation of it, which was the attribute of that ancient deity [Hermes], who brought the dead into life."

- Albert Mackey,
Encyclopedia of Freemasonry

Within 48 hours of this occult ritual, Vladimir Putin, head of the Russian Empire, announced a partial mobilization of his military and declared his intention to use whatever force was necessary to defend Russia against “the West”. This startling announcement took the form of a live broadcast to all 9 time zones across his empire.

The Rothschilds reveal their vision for Britain

The previous week, The Economist, the Rothschild mouthpiece on world affairs and geopolitical developments, carried a cover which, from a British standpoint, could hardly have been more forbidding:

It depicted the incoming Prime Minister, Liz Truss, striding with a satisfied grin across a scene of total devastation: the Houses of Parliament are in flames, the national power grid is demolished, the police service is in ruins, the health service is falling apart, and the streets are a desolate wasteland where abandoned figures wander about and struggle to survive. A giant, fiery crevasse runs through the whole scene. The only available light is provided by the moon and the many fires that litter the landscape.

To this Luciferian nightmare the editor has pinned a question: “Can Liz Truss Fix Britain?” This is probably intended as an ironic joke since “truss” can mean a surgical appliance to support a hernia or the act of tying an animal so tightly that it cannot move, and “fix” can mean to influence the outcome of an event in an illegal or underhand way.

We are given a further, enigmatic element to ponder by the inclusion on her dress of a strange shadow which, on closer inspection, seems to comprise one or more facial outlines. We are unable to decipher the purpose of this, but include the detail below so readers can judge for themselves:

The governments of the world

The governments of the world are owned by the Babylonian Elite. Their members didn’t “change sides” while in office, but were groomed from an early age to enter the political system and follow the instructions given by their handlers. The media, too, is completely controlled by the Babylonians. They regard the public as nothing more than a herd of cattle to be led along whatever path the Elite have chosen for them. When the time is right – from their wicked perspective – the herd will be severely culled and a new world order established.

Given the extent of the control which they now exercise over mankind and their sweeping totalitarian ambitions, as set out in detail in their UN master plans – Agenda 21 and Agenda 2030 – we can see why they are anxious to advance as quickly as possible toward their ‘New World Order’. Their supernatural master, the lord of darkness, masquerades as an angel of light. He craves the adulation of mankind and the prospect of enthroning his ‘anointed one’ in Jerusalem. No doubt he is pressing ahead with his plan while the herd is so docile and easy to manipulate.

The red heifers

We can gauge the accelerating rate of change from progress to date with the construction of the proposed Temple in Jerusalem. We noted in our last paper the creation of a high-speed rail link to convey international visitors from Ben Gurion airport to Jerusalem. This is an important sign since it is capital intensive and requires support at the highest political level. But another sign has also appeared on the scene in recent weeks. This is the news that five red heifers have been delivered to the Temple Institute in Jerusalem. Seemingly these specimens are perfectly red, having no white hairs whatever, and are thus deemed to satisfy the requirements of Numbers chapter 19. Attempts to date to source such an animal have met with repeated failure, so the arrival of these heifers is a significant event.

A rabbi inspects one of the five red heifers delivered to Israel and currently in quarantine in Haifa.

Ritual impurity is incurred through contact with a dead person (“He that toucheth the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days” - Numbers 19:11). Before a priest can participate in Temple ceremonies he must be purified by the water of separation, which is made by adding the cremated ashes of the red heifer to fresh water. He is then purified twice, three days after contact and again four days later.

The red heifer “sign”, of course, is only meaningful in terms of what the Babylonians themselves want to achieve. When viewed from a strictly Biblical perspective it is seriously flawed.

The Book of Numbers states that the red heifer must be ritually sacrificed in the following way:

“And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD hath commanded, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring thee a red heifer without spot, wherein is no blemish, and upon which never came yoke: And ye shall give her unto Eleazar the priest, that he may bring her forth without the camp, and one shall slay her before his face: And Eleazar the priest shall take of her blood with his finger, and sprinkle of her blood directly before the tabernacle of the congregation seven times: And one shall burn the heifer in his sight; her skin, and her flesh, and her blood, with her dung, shall he burn: And the priest shall take cedar wood, and hyssop, and scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer.”

(Numbers 19:1-6)

Two of these requirements cannot be satisfied today.

Firstly, Eleazar was a consecrated Aaronic priest. It is not sufficient to be born into the Aaronic line to qualify as a priest; one must also be consecrated in accordance with the rite set out in chapter 29 of the Book of Exodus. This rite, which is quite elaborate, can only be carried out by the High Priest. Aaron was anointed and consecrated by Moses at God’s request, and all priests thereafter were anointed and consecrated by the High Priest of the day in accordance with the rite set out in Exodus 29. Since Judaism today has no duly anointed High Priest, and thus no consecrated priests, it has no-one qualified to conduct the ceremony set out in Numbers 19:1-6.

The ceremony also requires that the priest “sprinkle of her blood directly before the tabernacle of the congregation seven times”. But the tabernacle no longer exists. More to the point, the Ark of the Covenant, the very heart of the Tabernacle, is no longer here, so attempts to fabricate a tabernacle to satisfy this requirement will have no Scriptural basis.

Moses consecrates Aaron as High Priest.

No doubt subtle Talmudic interpretations have been devised to get around these insuperable barriers, but they express nothing but man's arrogance, his flagrant disregard for God's Word. Christians should be able to see that the Third Temple will only have Scriptural standing when God Himself sends a true prophet to "restore all things". In His mercy He has already told us who this will be – see Matthew 17:11 and Malachi 4:5-6.

CONCLUSION

Many use the word "conspiracy" to describe what is happening, but this term is hopelessly inadequate. It fails to convey either the magnitude or the savagery of what the Enemy is planning to do. The silent rebellion has been running for six thousand years, during which time the wicked have consistently found ways to exploit and oppress the general population. In its final phase, the conspiracy – such as it is – will escalate into something far too monstrous to describe.

The world is in the grip of a cult which revels in death. The wicked draw their worldly power from Satan, and he in turn expects to be honored and recompensed through an ongoing program of human sacrifice. On 25th May 2018 the people of Ireland voted to sacrifice several thousand unborn children annually in the name of social convenience. In its first year of operation, the new law facilitated the sacrifice of 6666 unborn children – the number is significant. If 'ordinary' people are now prepared to do this, who can imagine what the wicked are already doing in dark places or the scale of the atrocities they will commit in the future if and when all moral strictures are removed?

A total of 6,666 abortions were carried out last year under new legislation legalising terminations of pregnancy, a report by the Minister for Health on abortion notifications in 2019 shows.

The Christ-hating Elite

The Book of Proverbs speaks at length about Wisdom, which in Scripture is a type of Christ. Referring to itself, Wisdom states: "...all they that hate me love death." (Proverbs 8:36).

This Christ-hating death cult has many masks – notably Freemasonry, Cabala, Enochian Magick, Thelema, and Witchcraft. Through the exercise of great secrecy it has concealed its existence extremely well. The only thing its affiliates fear are faithful Christians who rebuke their evil familiars in the holy name of Jesus.

This is one aspect of the great victory which Jesus achieved for us on Calvary. Those who pray in his name have the power, the supernatural authority, to drive out demons! This is why candidates for entry into Freemasonry are initiated during their first visit to the lodge. Once they swear their infernal oath – which is couched in terms which conceal its real purpose – the candidate no longer has any ability to pray in the name of Jesus. His spiritual teeth have been ripped out, as it were, and he no longer poses a threat to the demons which infest the lodge.

He will remain enslaved by Satan for the rest of his life unless he repents and renounces the filthy vows which bind his soul.

ANYONE who joins Freemasonry is at serious risk of eternal damnation. The cult of death has many masks and they are all designed to lure new victims into Satan's grip and hold them firmly until, in the fulness of time, they leave this world.

The cult makes huge promises to those who join, including the promise of eternal life after death. See, for example, the quote above from the Encyclopedia of Freemasonry by Albert Mackey, which claims that the pagan god Hermes has the power to restore the dead to life. What lies! What vile, wicked, despicable lies!

Christ alone can free mankind from the power of Satan. When we come to faith and are born again his pure light shines perfectly into our soul and expels the Adversary. And when the Last Day finally arrives, he has the power to raise us from the dead and, for those who are still alive on earth, to grant them an immortal body:

“Jesus said unto her [Martha], I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?” (John 11:25-26)

Satan does everything he can to blind our eyes to this remarkable truth. Jesus hinted at this when he asked Martha, “Believest thou this?”

Satan’s mockery of the human body

One of his favorite tricks is to trivialize death, to dismiss it as merely a “transition” from one level of existence to another. He enhances this deception by diminishing the spiritual significance of our human body, portraying it simply as a genetic construct akin to any other found in nature. This makes death seem like a step upward into a higher state of consciousness, the casting away of an impediment which obstructs our perception of God. The New Age movement is heavily steeped in this pernicious lie.

The same lie is behind the drive to treat human remains as a waste product, a source of compostable material which can be recycled and given back to nature. Already four states – Washington, Colorado, Oregon and California – have passed laws that allow corpses to be ‘transformed’ into soil or ‘fertilizer’. Unlike the law in Colorado, the law in California does not explicitly ban the resale of the ‘soil’ or its use as ‘fertilizer’ for growing food for human consumption. The new law, in effect, is a stepping stone to cannibalism, where humans consume the remains of other humans.

At the end of the First World War, teams of soldiers spent months scouring the battlefields of the Somme for human remains and any material that might help to identify each victim. It was a long slow process. Using the information gained from this painstaking exercise they were able to compile a detailed list of the dead and provide a personal burial for each victim. Contrast this with the treatment they would now receive under Californian law. The fields would be ploughed under and the entire area designated a mass grave suitable for growing crops, planting a forest or playing football.

This is how far mankind has fallen in just a hundred years!

The Illuminati showcase their god Osiris on British Television

by Jeremy James

#241

We would urge our readers to look again at this paper, #241. The 'message' in the television ad was unusually direct.

We would like to close with an insightful, albeit lengthy, quotation from Eustace Mullins. A friend of Ezra Pound, he spent several decades researching the activities of the secretive Babylonian Elite. Fourteen years before 9/11 he published a book, The Curse of Canaan, which accurately predicted the crisis we are now in. While we do not endorse everything he says, he nonetheless provides a lucid, intelligent, and Biblically-based analysis of the forces which have shaped history since the Flood.

Thirty-five years before President Biden approved the recruitment of 87,000 armed IRS officials to carry out selective tax inspections of middle-class Americans, Mullins had warned that the IRS would be used to destroy conservative America. He also revealed that the change in 1981 in the way the President of the United States was inaugurated was a sign that the Elite were satisfied that the false ecumenical church – which posed no threat to their occult pretensions – was now firmly in place. This adds weight to our opinion that the “breaking of the wand” ceremony at the Queen’s funeral was a signal to Luciferians across the world that the final phase of their rebellion was about to begin:

[start of excerpt]

The Reagan presidency itself represents the high water mark for the black nobility Canaanite control of our government [He was writing in 1987, before Bush Sn, Clinton, Bush Jr, Obama, Trump, and Biden came on the scene!]. The Jesuits had boasted that a secret sign was to be given to the world when the ecumenical movement had successfully overcome its worldwide opposition. This sign would be the swearing in of a U.S. President while facing the symbolic occult obelisk. On January 20, 1981, for the first time in history, the swearing in ceremonies were moved to the west front of the Capitol. Reagan was sworn in while facing the Washington Monument, the mystical symbol of the Canaanites and the Babylonians...

Every agency of the federal government has now been enlisted in the campaign to destroy American industry and production. The principal weapon is the Internal Revenue Service, which seeks out and destroys anyone who is engaged in the productive use of capital. The IRS moves in and confiscates all assets, so the business can never again go into production. This is a deliberate policy; those groups which are cooperating in the campaign to destroy the United States are automatically granted 'Tax Exemption' by the IRS...

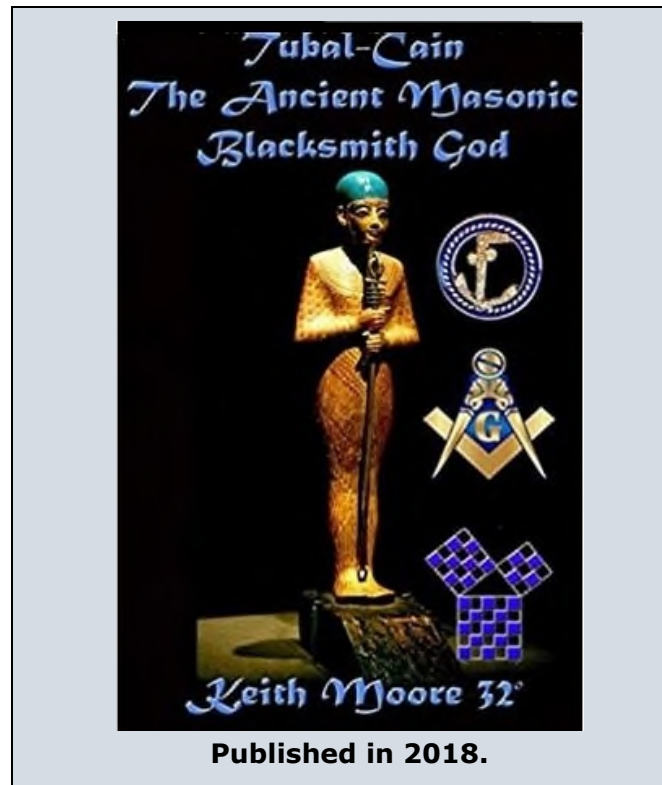

The special fury of the IRS is unleashed against any American who is considered a "patriot" or even a "conservative." Churches and schools which teach Christianity are padlocked by federal agents and their proprietors thrown into prison. Those churches which preach the doctrine of the Masonic Canaanites are immune from such onslaughts. These "patriotic" churches and schools represent a serious threat to the "final solution" which the Canaanites have planned for the people of Shem. "Plan Naamah," named after the demonic being who first introduced human sacrifice and cannibalism to the world, is a documented plan for the systematic extermination of all the people of Shem in the United States.

The inauguration of Donald Trump in 2017.
Trump took his oath of office before Baal,
just like every president since Reagan.
They are all on the same team.

Plan Naamah is simply the American version of the massacres perpetrated during the French, Russian, and Spanish Revolutions. The plan is a simple one: newspapers, radio, and television will announce an imminent attack (the recent TV series Amerika was an important step in conditioning the American people to nonresistance in such an event; the "Russians" took over the country without a struggle). Everyone will be instructed to assemble in schools and auditoriums in every town and city in the United States. Only the fair-skinned people of Shem will actually obey this command; others, of Canaanite extraction, will be told that they should return to their homes. Once they have been herded into these buildings, the people of Shem are to be killed, but only according to regulated procedures, that is, with hatchets, clubs, and knives.

The use of guns will be prohibited, probably because there were no guns in the time of Naamah. Their use would violate "religious" principles. Also, the use of more primitive weapons assures a much greater flow of blood, which is always a basic objective of ritual slaughter. Should any Canaanite be inadvertently present, he or she will be protected by using the secret password, "Tubal Cain," the brother of Naamah, and the password of the Freemasons.

Plan Naamah will remain in effect until the people of Shem have been entirely eliminated throughout the United States. The teams of specially trained killers will be provided by the hordes of "immigrants" who have been imported into the United States during recent years specifically for this program. The people of Shem will be selected for extermination primarily by their physical characteristics, fair skin, blue eyes, although this will not be the sole qualification; lists will have been drawn up of the people of Shem in every area; these lists will be the final means of "selection." This will be the final strike against the "blue bloods," a term which originated after the Moors had invaded and conquered Spain (the Iberian Peninsula, home of Heber, the people of Shem). The Spanish coined the term "sangre azul," or blue blood, to mark those old families which refused to be contaminated with Moorish or other Canaanite admixtures. Those with very fair skin could be seen to have veins which showed blue against this background, while those of swarthier appearance showed no "blue blood."

[end of excerpt]

Note how he even foresaw the organized attack on ‘white privilege’!

We include this excerpt from Eustace Mullins’ book to show that the plan which the Elite are following today has been in gestation for a very long time, that it is entirely based on their age-old hatred of God and His Son, that it is the culmination of a war that has been waged for the past six thousand years, that it is infused through and through with Luciferian philosophy (including human sacrifice), and that its leaders will do whatever it takes, however cruel, barbaric or destructive, to achieve their final goal.

We also include it to show, as we have stated in dozens of our previous papers, that the Elite continually lie and lie and lie, until it hardly seems possible to lie any more, and that they do so with great ease and assurance, without the slightest moral discomfort.

The great plan to steal the world began with the slow accumulation of small gains. With the passage of time this grew into a secretive, highly organized worldwide program of intellectual subversion, gross deception, moral perversion, and spiritual decay.

We are not to fear these people. Rather we should take comfort in the knowledge that Christ Our Lord, at his second coming, will destroy every last one of them:

“Therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder... the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. For the terrible one is brought to nought, and the scorner is consumed, and all that watch for iniquity are cut off.”

- Isaiah 29

Praise the LORD!
